Anchorage Montessori School Calendar is designed with several factors in mind.

1. We work to align our schedule to the Anchorage School District's (ASD) as much as possible for families with children attending both our school and Public School.
 - a. This year the first day of school in August occurs on day after ASD to allow for individual Teacher/Parent Orientations.
 - b. We separated in-service days from the parent teacher conferences for our 3-day a families so they may attend school.
2. Our In-Service days are extremely valuable. The Montessori teaching style requires hands-on materials and teacher training for implementation. Classroom organization and cleaning occur during these days, along with materials preparation, team meetings, and staff training.
 - a. AMS will be open on the ASD November 11, 2020 in-service day.
3. Please note the Parent orientations will be on an individual basis due to COVID-19 and may occur remotely.
4. Depending on the pandemic there are currently no AMS community gatherings at school. We look forward to this changing and will monitor the situation continually.
